Pageant scoring structure

Personal interviews – 25%

Contestants will meet with the judges one-on-one prior to the onstage portion of the pageant. During the interview, judges will have the opportunity to ask the contestant a variety of questions to help them determine an appropriate score. This is also an excellent opportunity for the contestant to convey her personality and become more comfortable with each of the judges on the panel.

Personal Introduction & Speech – 25%

Contestants will introduce themselves onstage and deliver a speech on why they would like to be Miss Artesia or Miss Artesia Teen.

Evening Gown – 25%

Each contestant will model a gown of her choice onstage, exhibiting grace, poise, and charm before our panel of judges.

On Stage Questions – 25%

Each contestant will randomly pick a question that she will answer onstage to the best of her ability, exhibiting intelligence, speaking ability, and “grace under pressure”.

Attendance

Extra credit points will be given for prompt attendance at rehearsals & activities. These points will be added to each contestant’s scoring from the judges and may help to determine our new Royal Court. Therefore, prompt attendance at all events is encouraged and strongly recommended.
